

Faculty of Pain Medicine Webinar: Acute/In-hospital Pain. Day 1

Tuesday 8 June 2021 | 13:00-17:00

Programme

13:00 Welcome

13:05 Summary of recent FPM 'Surgery and Opioid guidance'. Need for a transitional care model?

Paul Wilkinson, Newcastle, UK. Chair, working party 'Surgery and Opioid' guidance

13:30 Pre-operative chronic pain consult - what are the issues for pain doctors to focus on?

Dr Sailesh Mishra, Consultant in Anaesthesia and Pain Medicine, Newcastle upon Tyne

13:55 Physiotherapy based prehabilitation for chronic pain patients prior to surgery - is it needed?

Prof Paul Cameron, Head of the NHS Fife Pain Service, Scotland

14:20 Psychological prehabilitation for effective pain management- is it effective and who should do it?

Dr Beth Darnall, Professor of Anesthesiology, Perioperative and Pain Medicine, USA

14:45 Break

15:05 Chronic post surgical pain - diagnosis and management

Dr Hance Clarke, Director of Pain Services, Toronto General Hospital, Canada

15:30 IR vs MR opioids for post operative pain

Nicholas Levy, Consultant in Anaesthesia and Pain Medicine, West Suffolk

15:55 Getting patients off opioids prior to surgery – how to do it?

Heath McAnally, USA

16:20 Postoperative opioid stewardship (surgeons)

Susan Hill, Consultant Vascular Surgeon, Cardiff

16:45 Closing comments

Programme organised by Dr Devjit Srivastava and Dr Manohar Sharma

Please note that the programme and timings are subject to change.

Faculty of Pain Medicine Webinar: Acute/In-hospital Pain. Day 2

Tuesday 29 June 2021 | 13:00-17:00

Programme

13:00 Welcome

13:05 Rib Fracture pathway

Rosel Tallach, Consultant Anaesthetist, NHS Highland, Scotland

13:30 Elective amputation for CRPS - a case study

Suchitra Kanagasundaram, Consultant Anaesthetist, Peterborough

13:55 Intrathecal opioids- update on effectiveness, dosing and safety

Mark Koning, Consultant in Anaesthesia and Intensive Care, Rotterdam, The Netherlands

14:20 Wound catheters- how to do it right and are they effective?

Richard Makin, Consultant in Anaesthesia & Pain Management, Newcastle

14:45 Break

15:05 Erector spinal and Serratus anterior blocks- an overview

Jayne Halcrow, Consultant in Anaesthesia, Scotland

15:30 A round up of recent FPM Guidance

Manohar Sharma, Consultant in Pain Medicine and Anaesthesia, Liverpool

15:55 The future is here- gene therapy for acute and chronic pain

James Cox, Senior Lecturer, UCL

16:20 The top 5 acute pain papers/guidance of 2020/21

Dev Srivastava, Consultant Anaesthesia and Pain Medicine, Inverness, Scotland

16:45 Closing comments

Programme organised by Dr Devjit Srivastava and Dr Manohar Sharma

Please note that the programme and timings are subject to change.